UNION PACIFIC BAILBOAD. PRINCIPAL PAYABLE IN GOLD, IN 20 YEARS; INTEREST 8 PAR CENT IN CURRENCY, OR 7 PER CENT IN STERLING MONEY. THESE BONDS ARE ISSUED TO RETIRE THE OUTSTANDING INCOME BONDS, OR TO FUND OTHER INDESTED-NESS OF THE COMPANY.

They are a Second Mortgage on the entire unsol Lands of the Road, now amounting to OVER 11,000,000 ACRES:

and will be a first lien on the lands when the $10,400,000 land grant books (one-half of which is already provided for) are retired. The turther sale of 1.23,000 acres, at prices heretower realized, would cancel the now remaining basines of land grant bonds, when this bond would become a first mortgage on nearly 10,000,000 acres, the value of which is much more than sufficient to cover the entire issue of sinking fund bonds; besides which, these bonds are a mortgage on the road, its franchises and equipment subject to the first mortgage and the government lien.

and equipment, subject to the first mortgage and the government hen.

One per cent of the bonds withdrawn annually and redeemed at par.

The sinking fund bonds are offered in exchange for the outstanding income bonds at the rate of six of the new bonds for five of the incomes, which, considering that the latter are not mortgage bonds, is a very advantageous change for investment.

BROOKLYN.

The police clerk of arrests reports the number of persons "taken in" last week at 628.

Collector Burrows reports having received taxes to the amount of $31,993 21 during the past week. The Kings county Board of Assessors met yesterday and resolved upon cancelling the tax upon the Lefferts Park Baptist Mission Sunday School

In the Kings County Nursery, of which Mr. Thomas Driscoll is superintendent, there are 250 children of various ages, from babyhood to ten years. The average attendance at the school is 250, all below ten years. Yesterday the police of the Fifth precinct, Williamsburg, found a blind man named Sebastian

Myers in the celiar of a rookery at No. 172 Front street, dying from starvation. Commissioner Raber at once ordered his removal to Flatbusu. Hereafter, pursuant to a new arrangement made by the Postmaster of Brooklyn, the mails, instead of going through the New York office, will be taken direct over the Long Island railroads, thereby affording a far more rapid delivery of letters than under the old system. Yesterday morning Mary and William Ellick, colored, who keep a small tailoring establishment in Firth street, Williamsburg, while putting a muzzle on a watchdog belonging to them, were bitten by the animal on their respective lent hands. Deceased was on his way to Coney Island, in company with his wife and several grandchildren, on Friday, and for the purpose of giving zest to his enjoyment of the trip brought his fowling piece along with him to shoot snipe. He laid the latter down beneath the seat of the ear, from which he alighted at the entrance to Prospect Park, intending to walk across that demesne and take another route to the Island. Catching hold of the barrel of the piece, he drew it toward him. The trigger caught in the seat and the hammer fell. The contents of the shotgun lodged in his right side, inflicting a glastif wound, and Mr. Breckner fell dying on the roadside. He breathed his last within an hour after sostaining the injury. The verdict of the jury was—"beath from a gunshot wound accidentally received."

BATURDAY EVENING AT PROSPECT PARK.

There was a very large assemblage at Prospect ark yesterday afternoon, composed for the most part of young people who, while they were given the boon of a temporary respite from labor, were unable to leave town. This class of persons enjoy these Saturday evening open air concerts, furnished by the city at an expense of $180, and bless the stars that have east their lines in such a pleasant place as the virtuous and philanthropic City of churches. Professor Conterno's Twenty-third Regiment Band furnished the harmony upon the occasion, beneath the gentle umbrage of the over-hanging trees in the woods near Neinermede Concourse. There was a series of friendly races between the minature yachts of the Park and other Lilputian organizations, the course extending from the cove near the base of Lookout Hill to the eastern shore of the lake. Some fine specimens eastern shore of the lake. Some fine specimens of sailing craft were on exhibition, and it may be that the champion of the seas in the yacht races to come was represented by perfection of marine architecture and design in the toy craft that skimmed the plactif lake to the delight of boys yesterday in the Park.

TWO UNGALLANT ESCORTS.

Two young sports, giving their names as George Fisher and Frank Hunter, attended a picnic in Jones' Wood park last Friday evening, and there became acquainted with two pretty young ladies, with whom they danced several waltzes. At about eleven o'clock the young ladies signified their intention of starting for home. The young men asked for permission to escort them in their carriage. The young ladies, having no serious objection, blushingly allowed the young men to act jection, blushingly allowed the young men to act as their escort. After leaving the park they rode down Third avenue and went to a restaurant for supper. The young men finished first, and said that they were latigued and excused themselves for a moment. The young ladies waited for more than an hour for their escorts to return and pay for the suppers they had ordered; but, as they did not appear, the young ladies paid the bill and went home unaccompanied, fully convinced of the instability of all human adairs, particularly beaux that are caught at pienics.

Killed by a Lump of Coal. On the 6th inst. William Benson, an officer sttached to the ship Octavio, then lying at the loot of Seventeenth street, North River, had an alter cation on the pier with Charles McCarthy, an expressman, living in James street, during which it is alleged the latter seized a lump of coal and threw it at Benson, who received the blow over the eye, felling him to the pier and instantly reducing him to insensibility. McCarthy was arrested at the time, but subsequently released on bail by the committing magistrate, as the surgeon in attendance then believed Benson's life to be in no immediate danger. Benson, however, grew worse of late, and died in Bellevie Hospital early yesterday morning, as is believed from compression of the brain or iracture of the skull. After his death Coroner Woltman, who has the case in charge, issued a warrant for the arrest of McCarthy, and Detective Mahony, of the Fourth precinct, yesterday took lim into custody and he was committed to the Tombs to await the result of an investigation. The deceased, when questioned concerning the occurrence, said he knew nothing whatever about it. Deceased was twenty-nine years of age, and a native of Scotland. ducing him to insensibility. DOMESTIC INFELICITIES OF A PORTLAND LAWYER

A lawyer named Irving W. Parker, who formerly belonged to Portland, Me., but who now does bustness at No. 167 Broadway, was held in bonds to answer two charges preferred by his wife, Hannah-one for assault and battery and the other for abandonment. Her story is that the defendant became infatuated with another woman a great deal older than himself, and that in order to enjoy her society unmolested he came with her to this city. Several weeks ago she herself arrived here in search of him, and, learning his whereabouts, she went to see him. His reception of her was not very encouraging, but she took up her residence at No. 226 East Thirty-flith street, determined to win him back again to herself if possible. One day last week she had an interview with him, and he beat her in a most brutal manner. She then concluded to have him arrested.

a most order manner. She had consider to also him arrested.

The prisoner is a man of ability, and as he stood before the Court and rave an emphatic denial to the charge against him his appearance certainly indicated anything but the character given or him by his wife. At his request ball was accepted for reappearance for trial, his partner, a man named Sawyer, becoming his bondsman.

THE COURTS.

A Singular Case of Abduction A Mother Recovers Her Boy.

VACATION OF AN ASSESSMENT

Eleven keepers of liquor stores (one wholes and the balance retail) were yesterday arrested and brought before United States Commissioner shields, charged with non-payment of the government tax. Some were allowed to go on their own recognizance and others held to bail in small

How a Mother Recovered Her Boy-A Singular Case. A case presenting some rather curiously mixed

features was yesterday brought before Judge Lawrence in Supreme Court, Chambers. According to the statement of Colonel Spencer, the counsel, Chauncey T. H. Huff, of No. 157 Bank street, a sofa bed maker by trade, several years since obtained a divorce from his wife, who is now living on a little farm in Wyoming county, Pennsylvania. There are two children by this marriage, a boy now nearly eighteen years of age and a girl aged fourteen. The father took the children with him, and both being ill treated, the boy, as alleged, being kicked into the street by his lather, fied to their mother's home. Meantime Huf had married a second wife, by whom he has two children, and against whom proceedings are now pending for a divorce, so that he, as the second wife says, may marry a third wife. About two weeks ago, late at night Huff, necompanied by four men, as the first wife says, came to her house and forcibly took away her two endiden. A day or two after, as soon as she had recovered from the shock occasioned by the abduction of her children, she came to this city in search of hom. She found the daughter with him, but he claimed to know nothing about the boy. After instituting proceedings for the recovery of the daughter, which are now pending before Mr. Sinclair, appointed by the Court as referee, she continued her search for her son, and finally traced nim to the school ship at Hart's, Island. A writ of habeas corpus was obtained, and upon this the boy was brought into Court, the Commissioners of Charities and Correction stating in their return to the writ that he was placed there at the instahes of the father. The boy, a bright, intelligent looking had, was hundenfed, and was seated by his mother, who was present, as also was the second wife in the case as the real mother. Counsel characterized the sending of the boy to the school-ship upon no charge as an outrage, and upon the state of facts presented asked his discharge. Judge Lawrence at once granted the application, and ordered the handcuffs to be taken from the scene between the two was quite affecting, and the second wife mingled her tears of rejoicing over the result with those of the mother. Directly after this the examination as to the custody of the girk was resumed before the referee. In this c a divorce from his wife, who is now living on a little farm in Wyoming county, Pennsylvania. There
